From: Cynthia Wilson-Frias, Chief of Legal Services
Date: April 3, 2023
Re: PUC Docket No. 22-42-NG – In re: Issuance of Advisory Opinion to Energy Facility Siting Board (EFSB) Application to Construct LNG Vaporization Facility on Old Mill Lane, Portsmouth, RI

SECOND REVISED PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

The following represents the revised procedural schedule:

Discovery questions will have a 14-day response period. Extensions of time may be requested for good cause.

12/01/2022	Deadline to file for intervention
12/19/2022	Rhode Island Energy's Pre-Filed Testimony is due
03/07/2023	Inteviewer and Division Testimony or Position Statement are due (position statements must have a sponsor if they contain factual statements, i.e, not just arguments of policy or law). The sponsor is expected to attend the hearing.
04/18/2023	Rhode Island Energy's Rebuttal Testimony is due
05/02/2023	Intervenor and Division Surrebuttal Testimony or Surrebuttal Position Statement are due (same rules as for position statements)
05/08/2023	9:30 A.M. – Public Hearing in Hearing Room A – Public Comment at the start Written public comments will be accepted for review by the Commission through the decision in this matter. However, to ensure review and consideration of the written comments, members of the public are advised to send in their comments by April 20, 2023. Comments can be mailed, hand-delivered, or emailed (preferred method) to Luly.Massar@puc.ri.gov
05/09/2023	Hearings continue

The hearing schedule will be refined prior to the commencement of the hearings and will likely be organized by topic. Witnesses, however, are advised to keep all three hearing days available on their calendars until the hearing schedule is set.

If necessary, a briefing schedule will be set after the hearings conclude.

06/05/2023 Written Advisory Opinion due to the EFSB
